

Magnificent Monarchs

Six Significant Sovereigns

Alfred the Great was a wise and brave king. He converted his Viking enemy to Christianity, and they became friends. He united the English kingdoms. He valued education and created schools to teach his people.

William the Conqueror invaded England and defeated Harold II at the Battle of Hastings. He had absolute power. He created the feudal system and built many castles to protect his kingdom.

Henry VIII was famous for marrying six times and creating the Church of England. He was also power hungry. He closed the monasteries, strengthened the Royal Navy and made laws without parliament.

Elizabeth I was intelligent, brave and loved by her people. She spoke many languages and supported the Arts. She never married and proved that a woman could rule a kingdom alone. She supported explorers and defeated the Spanish Armada.

Queen Victoria reigned for 63 years. She supported charities, new technologies and inventions. She also increased the size and power of the British Empire. She was married to Prince Albert and had nine children.

Elizabeth II was the monarch and the Head of the Commonwealth for 70 years. She performed many royal duties, such as opening parliament and giving awards. She led the country's celebrations, supported charities, hosted state banquets and met world leaders.
